Day 1 Cervera - Ossó de Sió 38,56 Km (23'95 miles) 325 m. accumulated

The first day, in the morning, the route runs almost 19 miles passing alongside various castles enjoying the rugged countryside scenery of the plains of La Segarra. After lunch at a friendly restaurant and a guided visit to last castle of the day, you will spend the night in a typical Catalan farmhouse, near to an attractive swimming pool. ⁽²⁾

Day 2 Ossó de Sió - Palouet 33,17 Km (20'60 miles) 393 m. accumulated

After breakfast we will make leisurely visits to two magnificent castles while gradually the small holm-oak and pine forest in the higher hills and deeper valleys gradually replace the fields of cereals. The accommodation for the night is in a magnificent inn (originally a castle) with excellent services and amenities (including a splendid heated swimming pool).

Day 3 Palouet - Cervera 22,43 Km (13 miles) 320 m. accumulated

The day starts with a small mountain bike ascent to a private castle. From then on the route is mostly downhill, passing through Sant Guim (one of the most beautiful villages in the region) and after discovering a couple more of castles. After lunch, a guide will show you the city of Cervera, known for its unique buildings and the university.

Day 4 Cervera - Estaràs - Cervera 38,08 Km (23 miles) 413 m. accumulated

The last day the route passes by a small tour of the tiny villages of southern La Segarra, among landscapes of oak forests to reach the "joy" of the path, a small medieval village completely encircled by its walls. After lunch, the route leads along the old creek to Cervera and the old original path.
